

---

Recognizing Access Copyright Foundation Funding for Your Activity

Recognize Access Copyright Foundation funding:

- Display the Foundation's logo (www.acfoundation.ca) at events and on print materials. These include annual reports, newsletters, brochures, flyers, posters, programs, invitations, signs, and tickets. Logo display should be prominent and on par with the size of other sponsors' logos.<sup>1</sup>
- Recognize the Foundation's funding in other forms of promotion, including websites, public service announcements and radio, television, and specialty advertising.
- Acknowledge Foundation funding in speeches and presentations as well as at openings, performances and events.

We want to hear from you!

- We want everyone to know about the positive impact your activity makes on the arts. Send your good news to csteel@saskartsboard.ca so we can spread the word through our annual report, press releases, presentations and website.

Other ways you can recognize the Foundation:

- Invite municipal, provincial, and federal decision-makers to your openings, performances and events.
- Raise awareness in your organization and/or networks about the Access Copyright's Foundation's role in supporting the arts. Forward the Foundation's announcements to your members, volunteers, and colleagues.

---

<sup>1</sup> Access Copyright Foundation (ACF) grants a non-exclusive, limited licence to recipients of ACF grants ("ACF Grant Recipient") to use ACF's logo for the purposes identified in this document. ACF Grant Recipient acknowledges and accepts ACF's proprietary rights and ownership in the logo and shall not at any time do or cause to be done any act which would in any way impair ACF's intellectual property rights in and to its logo and the goodwill associated therewith.