

Saskatchewan Arts Board
Artists in Schools Micro-Development Program
October 1, 2019 Deadline

Micro-Development Grants	Location	Project Description	Amount
Brightwater Science, Environmental, and Indigenous Learning Center	Saskatoon	We will create outdoor sculptures using found material to support cultural learning about sustainability. The participants will be from Confederation Park School's Cree Immersion class.	$1,000
Ernest Lindner School	Saskatoon	Students will engage with Tod Emel (our artist) as they compose and perform electronic music using LMMS digital music station. https://lmms.io/	$1,000
Living Sky School Division No. 202	North Battleford	To explore ideas about ecological art with traditional Indigenous knowledge to deepen our relationship with the land and planning for an Artist in Schools project.	$1,000
Prairie Sky School	Regina	This project is for a grade 6-8 class to learn basic wood shop skills by building shelves with woodworker Brian Gladwell.	$756
Stoughton Central School	Stoughton	Song Writers Circle with Saskatchewan Recording Artists Glen Strong and Forrest Eaglespeaker.	$1,000