

Saskatchewan Arts Board
Micro-Grant Program July 1, 2019 Closing Date

Organizations	Location	Discipline	Project Description	Amount
Creative City Centre Inc.	Regina	Literary	We are taking a team of youth poets to Toronto to participate in Voices of Today, a national SpoCan-sanctioned poetry festival for youth.	$2,000
Gwepa	Regina	Dance	Gwepa dance team hosts professional salsaeros Yasbek Cervantes and Rocio Reyes (Mexico) for 2 days and 1 half day of intensive professional development workshops	$2,000

Individuals	Location	Discipline	Project Description	Amount
Bosiak, Charlene	La Ronge	Dance	To perform as part of a collective of professional dancers under the Artistic Direction of Yasmina Ramzy and her YR Arts Global Collective Dance Company.	$631
Campos, Yulissa	Saskatoon	Theatre	This grant will allow me to compensate the cast and crew for their work during the creative process of "I,Frida" featuring at the Fringe Festival.	$1,000
Coppens, Nathan	Saskatoon	Theatre	I am acting in a Fringe production that is touring Canada. This grant would help cover per diems for the 77 days on the road.	$1,000
Hale, Laura	Saskatoon	Visual	To accept an invitation to travel to and participate in a unique career development opportunity, an environmental art focused residency in Nova Scotia, Canada.	$1,000
Pogorelova, Anya	Saskatoon	Music	International symposium for educators to explore new ideas. Participants conduct live ensembles, receive feedback, and are guided through score study, rehearsal techniques, movement, and interpretation.	$631
Ramsay, Jessica	Regina	Music	I hope to go to Germany for a Mentorship and specialized training on the violin from September 9 to December 16, 2019.	$1,000
Tenold, Darla	Saskatoon	Literary	Attend the St. Peter's College Colloquium with Tim Lillburn and Sheri Benning, followed by a five-day SWG individual retreat.	$858