

Saskatchewan Arts Board
Artists in Communities - Projects Program
November 1, 2019 Deadline

Organizations	Location	Project Description	Amount
25th Street Theatre Centre Inc.	Saskatoon	Artist Laura Hale will engage the attendees of the 2020 Fringe Festival to create a large-scale, outdoor art installation over the course of ten days.	$10,000
asokan Project Camps	Battleford	This project provides youth of Poundmaker and Little Pine First Nation with five days of creative programming that use land as pedagogy for art practice.	$10,000
Dunlop Art Gallery	Regina	Logan MacDonald will explore the Deaf experience with Deaf and Hard of Hearing students. The collaborative artwork will be exhibited at Dunlop Art Gallery.	$10,000
Eden Care Communities Foundation Inc.	Regina	Collaborating with FadaDance Troupe our project will integrate the use of dance and movement to improve the overall well-being of our staff, artists and communities.	$9,781
Girls Rock Camp Saskatoon	Saskatoon	Providing opportunities for female empowerment through Cultural Arts Mentorship Programming by building capacity and expanding the Girls Rock Saskatoon program to under-served/remote communities in Saskatchewan.	$10,000
Northern Saskatchewan International Children's Festival Inc.	Saskatoon	Sock Puppet workshop	$6,000
Prairie Sculptors' Association	Saskatoon	Prairie Sculptors' Assoc. (PSA) and Manitou Beach Recreation Board will host a sculpture symposium including public art workshops and a community art project.	$10,000
Santa Maria Senior Citizens Home	Regina	To test the feasibility of an arts-based program in the home with the hope of turning it into an artist in community residency	$10,000
Saskatoon Industry Education Council	Saskatoon	Through art, newcomer youth will to express and share their culture while learning about the similarities and differences in other cultures in their new community.	$10,000
The Saskatchewan Council for International Cooperation (SCIC)	Regina	To work with Saskatchewan artists to provide young leaders with creative and supportive spaces to engage with ideas related to social justice and global citizenship.	$9,900

Individuals	Location	Project Description	Amount
Hale, Laura	Saskatoon	Free, drop-in, community-engaged, environmental art project using locally found plants to explore material potential and create sculptural artworks and to create space for community dialogue.	$10,000